Asm. Evan Low Statement on Retirement of Representative Anna Eshoo

SACRAMENTO—Assemblymember Evan Low (D-Silicon Valley) provided the following statement regarding the announcement by Representative Anna Eshoo to not seek re-election for United States Congress:

“Representative Anna Eshoo is an icon, personal hero and champion who leads this community with tremendous energy, grace, and grit.

We are so blessed to have her as our leader, gracefully navigating the complex issues in this valley of high expectations. Her public service has been noble and selfless, advancing quality healthcare access for all, immigration reform rooted in compassion and humanity, and stringent consumer protections unfettered by special interests. I look forward to the many ways we can honor her extraordinary service to our communities.”
